SCORE HORSE OWNERS

Humane Officers Appear Before Commissioners.

WANT CRUELTY LAW UPHOLD

Former President Snow and President Walter S. Hutchins Make Addresses on Subject of Police Protection and Co-operation of Humane Society in Caring for Horses.

At a public hearing before the Commissioners yesterday morning, C. A. Snow, former president of the society, spoke for the Washington Humane Society, and made a warm reply to the Horse Owners' Mutual Protective Association.

Some time ago the Commissioners held a hearing, and the Horse Owners' Association contended that the Humane Society exercised altogether too much diligence in making arrests, and that the salaries of the officers employed for this purpose depended upon the number of arrests they made.

Statistics were shown tending to prove the assertion made, that the arrests increased each year until the Horse Owners' Association was formed, and then very materially decreased.

Mr. Snow said the Humane Society has at all times co-operated with police, and about eight years ago, the then president of the society secured the permission of Commissioner Ross to offer prizes for gold watches to the two policemen in each precinct securing the largest number of arrests.

Mrs. Townsend's Prizes.

"Only a few months ago," said the speaker, "Miss Mathilde Townsend wished to become a member of the Humane Society, and to offer prizes to secure greater activity of the police, and only recently the president of the society and myself called on Commissioner West with the same object in view. He issued a special order through Maj. Sylvester directing the captains of the precincts to have their men arrest and prosecute those guilty of cruelty to animals."

With reference to the offering of prizes, Mr. Snow said he had never heard opposition to this except from these extremely virtuous horse owners, all of whom, including the president, secretary, and treasurer, have records of conviction in the Police Court. He said that if the ex-presidents of Sing Sing and Moundsville should present a bill for the suppression or prevention of murder, burglary, and forgery, and the bill should have a clause forbidding detective work, he did not think it would be seriously considered, and that he did not think the Horse Owners' Association was wanting in effort.

President Hutchins Speaks.

Walter Stilson Hutchins, president of the society, told the Commissioners that the society wants to retain the police power of its agents. He mentioned a number of large cities where the humane societies are paid all or part of the fines for violations of the cruelities laws, and said there is no precedent for the Commissioners taking away this source of income from the society. Both he and Mr. Snow said the main object is the suppression of cruelty to animals, and they would as soon see jail sentences imposed instead of fines.

Commissioner Johnstone asked for specific instances where policemen had failed to make arrests for violations of the laws for the protection of animals. Mr. Snow replied that he is sure the police are lax in this respect, but could give no specific instance.

PROTEST TO COMMISSIONERS.

Northeast Citizens Object to "Property Yard" as Lounging Place.

Representatives of the Northeast Citizens' Association and others appeared before the Commissioners yesterday morning to protest against the location of a theatrical property yard at the corner of Sixth and I streets northeast.

Rev. C. S. Abbott, Jr., said it would tend to depreciate values of property, and that such a yard would very probably become a lounging place for carters, &c., which would make it unpleasant for children and girls going to various meetings during the week afternoons and evenings.

He suggested that as there are no open spaces or parks in the northeast section between Stanton Square and Kendall Green, that the contemplated space for the property yard be converted into a park, street, open space, or playground.

W. J. Frizzell, for the Northeast Citizens' Association, protested against the proposed location, and said the act of Congress, section 8, reads: "In consideration of the grant and conveyance to the United States of the lands included within the limits of the roadway and right of way of the Washington Branch Railroad, which can be used for a street or avenue for the public benefit." "In view of this section, he said, a new thoroughfare should be opened, known as West Virginia avenue, and improved to Sixth and I streets northeast.

Asks Right to Change Name.

Joseph Armstrong yesterday filed petition to be allowed to assume the name of Joseph Armstrong, alleging that by reason of the similarity of the names and embarrassment resulting therefrom, and the fact that a large number of friends know him as Joseph Armstrong, great confusion has resulted to him and to his business affairs.

OLD STORAGE MEN TO MEET

Conference at Willard Called for Friday Night.

Members of American Warehousemen's Association Will Discuss Federal Supervision.

At the New Willard Hotel on Friday evening next there is to be a conference of the old storage members of the American Warehousemen's Association. T. A. Adams sent out the following statement from New York yesterday.

"The conference is for the purpose of discussing subjects which have gained prominence through recent investigation of beef packers in relation to their use of storage warehouses."

"What will interest the general public is the probability that we will discuss the expediency of asking for Federal supervision of our business. I have no authority for saying that Federal supervision will be discussed but I have reasons for believing the subject will be taken up. In my opinion such supervision is desirable for several reasons, also it would aid in ending any confusion in the public mind as to the relations between the packers and the public cold storage warehouses."

"The general public does not stop to think that under the producing conditions of this country we must produce in one half of the year nearly all we eat in the entire year, and that the better facilities we have for carrying over the summer surplus for winter use, the better protection we shall have against famines and speculators."

"I am sure there is not one case in ten thousand where any article of food is carried as long as twelve months. It is only carried over from the season of flush production to the season of scarcity, and is not carried any longer."

GEN. ELLIOTT TO RETIRE.

Many Are in Line for Successor as Marine Commandant.

Maj. Gen. George F. Elliott, commandant of the United States Marine Corps, will retire November 30 next. He may apply for retirement before that date under the service-retirement clause, and consequently there are many signs of activity by the influential friends of those members of the corps eligible for promotion.

There are many possibilities of filling the vacancy from the long list of officers "spoken off," including many of the colonels, lieutenant colonels, and staff officers.

Col. Frank L. Denny, of the Quartermaster's Department, and Col. Lauchheimer and Lieut. Col. Henry C. Haines, of the Adjutant General's Department, are among the latter class.

Plate Printers' Show To-night.

Under the direction of John H. Ewing as stage manager, the plate printers of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing will give a minstrel show to-night in Odd Fellows' Hall, Seventh street northwest. The printers have been busy making jokes for the last week, and the whole collection will be unloaded on the public during the course of the entertainment.

BRANDS STORY FAKE

Howe Totten Says There Will Be No Dog Show.

KENNEL CLUB IS FLOURISHING

Announcement by a Morning Newspaper of a Meeting to Reorganize Local Association of Dog Fanciers Brings Forth Emphatic Denial. Statement Causes Chagrin.

"There will be no dog show in Washington for a year at least, and any statement connecting my name with such an enterprise, in the immediate future, is a fake, pure and simple. Furthermore, I have written the paper which made the announcement of a meeting in my office at 3 o'clock this afternoon, telling the editors they had either been imposed upon by their reporter or they were imposing upon me and a credulous public."

This statement was made yesterday afternoon by Howe Totten, of the local Kennel Club, and one of the foremost dog fanciers in the country, to a group of reporters who had gathered at his office in anticipation of an imposing and enthusiastic meeting.

Causes Much Chagrin.

Mr. Totten was deeply chagrined at the annoyance to which he and many friends had been subjected. The Washington club, he said, was in no need of reorganization, but was in a most flourishing condition, and the members would look upon him as being overpresumptuous in relegating to himself the authority to speak without consulting them.

"I was called up at my house Sunday night," he continued, "told the reporter that I could not discuss the matter over the phone, and concluded that if he wished to see me about it, I would be in my office to-morrow (Monday). While I would gladly devote my time and money to any cause in the interest of improved breeding, my office is required for my personal business, and I could not tender it for a purpose such as this."

Mr. Totten concluded that the American Kennel Association had assigned dates for the entire year and, aside from the difficulty of obtaining a proper hall for the show, it would be impossible to arrange a date for this city before next January.

BURIAL IN NEW ENGLAND.

Body of George Bacon Robbins to Be Sent to South Carver, Mass.

The body of George Bacon Robbins, who died yesterday morning at his home, 1822 P street northwest, will be taken to his former home, at South Carver, Mass., for burial in the family lot. Arrangements for the funeral services have not yet been completed.

Mr. Robbins retired from active business in New York sixteen years ago, where he amassed a considerable fortune. He was born January 27, 1834, at Kingston, North Plymouth, Mass., of an old Mayflower family.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Bertha Murdoch Robbins, and a grandson, Thaddeus Fowler Robbins.

NEILL CHARGES DROPPED.

Secretary Nagel Intimates Investigation Will Cease.

Secretary Nagel, who has returned to the city, intimated in an interview yesterday that nothing will come of the charges preferred against Commissioner of Labor Charles P. Neill by former Special Agent Thomas R. Dawley, Jr.

The Secretary said that the matter had been originally investigated and disposed of by former Assistant Secretary McHarg, and subsequently inquired into by a special committee composed of Assistant Secretary Cable and Solicitor Earl at the earnest insistence of Commissioner Neill himself.

"I may add," he continued, "that nothing which has come to my attention on the subject has prompted me to suspend or modify the work of the bureau. On the contrary, I have given directions to have the work hastened along the lines on which it is now being performed."

FRATERNITY MEETING ON.

Kappa Sigma Men Plan Round of Pleasures To-day.

A smoker and reception at the home of Alpha Theta Chapter, and a dance last night at Rauscher's were the opening features of the annual district convocation of Kappa Sigma Fraternity. The convocation will be in session this afternoon at Rauscher's, followed by a banquet there at night.

Members of the fraternity residing or going to college in the third district, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, and the District of Columbia, gathered informally at the Kappa Sigma house, 2317 Fourteenth street, in the afternoon. There was no set programme, the alumni and students mixing fraternally in preparation for to-day's session.

The dance last night was attended by about sixty couples. The following were the patronesses: Mrs. John C. Boyd, Mrs. Philip P. Campbell, Mrs. George H. Powell, Mrs. Edgar P. Copeland, and Mrs. Edwin F. Parham. James A. White, Jr., wrote the music for the ball, and Carleton Bates, Oscar L. Horn, and Richard W. Hynson were in charge of arrangements.

There will be a sight-seeing trip around the Capital in a "rubberneck wagon" this morning. District Grand Marshal Wilson will preside at the meeting this afternoon, and Dr. H. D. Fry will be toastmaster at the banquet.

Funeral of Santos Auth.

The body of Santos Auth, who died Sunday afternoon, at his residence on Bladensburg road, will be carried to St. Mary's Cemetery to-morrow morning for burial. Requiem mass will be celebrated at St. Mary's Catholic Church by Rev. Father Wunnenberg, pastor.

Memorial Fund Not Raised.

Mrs. Henry F. Dimock, of New York, president of the George Washington Memorial Association, yesterday denied that contribution sufficient to insure the erection of the proposed $250,000 George Washington Memorial Hall in this city has been received.

Henry Ulke Buried.

The funeral of Henry Ulke, who died last Thursday, took place yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, interment being in Oak Hill Cemetery. Mr. Ulke's son who was in Utah at the time of his father's death arrived in time to attend the funeral.

Largest Morning Circulation.

MUST FACE TRIAL.

Moses Haas Will Be Brought to Washington.

The Supreme Court yesterday affirmed the judgment of the Federal Court at New York, in refusing to release on writ of habeas corpus, Moses Haas, ordered removed to Washington for trial with Frederick Peckham and Theodore A. Price, on charges of conspiracy to defraud the government in connection with the "leak" of cotton statistics from the Department of Agriculture. Similar judgments were also announced in the case of Price and Peckham.

WOULD REOPEN CASE.

Counsel for Robnett Asks Navy Department to Act.

Request has been made to the Navy Department to the effect that the records in the recent Auld-Robnett court-martial case be given to M. A. Ballinger, counsel for Naval Surgeon Robnett, who is anxious to have the case reopened with the view of being relieved of punishment.

Officials of the Navy Department, when asked about the proposed action, said that there was no possibility of reopening the case.

ROOM FOR IMMIGRANTS.

T. V. Powderly Attributes Our Wealth to Immigration of Aliens.

The subject of "Immigration and distribution" was discussed last evening by T. V. Powderly, Chief of the Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization, in his address to the Men's Club of St. Thomas' Episcopal Church.

He attributed the gradual increase of immigration to the immense wealth and vast miles of uninhabited fertile land in this country.

"Lack of room cannot be the reason for obliterating immigration, as the State of Texas alone affords ample room, and a means of support to every man in the United States. Means should be adopted to admit only those who are healthy and pure in mind, constitution, and morals, and forbid entrance to those whose character is branded by the hand of crime, and whose hearts are overwhelming with violence and vice."

NEW OFFICERS INSTALLED.

Red Men of District Induct Leaders at Special Meeting.

Installation of the new officers of the great council of the Improved Order of Red Men of the District took place last evening.

The officers chosen at the sixty-fifth annual meeting of the council are: Great prophet, Otto H. Fischer; great sashem, James W. Allison; great senior sashem, D. A. Dugan; great junior sashem, John M. Kemper; great chief recorder, Henry W. Tippet; great keeper of wampum, William B. Garner; great representative to the great council of the United States, James A. Matterson, Jr.

MARINES' TROPHIES ON VIEW.

Testimonials for Superior Marksmanship at National Museum.

The Marine Corps has placed on exhibition in the hall of American history in the National Museum the trophies that testify the superiority in marksmanship of that branch of the navy.

These testimonials are of silver and include the McAlpin shield offered by Gen. E. A. McAlpin, of New York, for "excellence in marksmanship." Of international interest is the Wimbledon Cup, presented by the National Rifle Association of Great Britain to the National Rifle Association of America. Attractive also is the Marine Corps trophy, presented for annual competition by officers of the corps.

SCOUT TO BE BURIED.

Funeral of Maj. Foster, Who Died in Philippines, To-morrow.

Funeral services for Maj. Arthur B. Foster, Philippine Scouts, U. S. A., will be held at the residence of Mrs. Foster's father, Capt. Robert Armour, 2565 H street northwest, to-morrow afternoon, at 2 o'clock. Services will be conducted by the Rev. William W. Brander, chaplain of the Fifteenth United States Cavalry, and the interment will be at Arlington, with military honors.

The honorary pallbearers will be Maj. E. A. Root, General Staff; Maj. B. B. Buck, Army War College; Maj. Frank McIntyre, Insular Bureau; Capt. M. D. Cronin, General Staff; Capt. R. A. Brown, Army War College; Capt. H. G. Learnard, General Staff; Capt. C. D. Rhodes, General Staff, and Capt. M. J. Lanthan, General Staff.
